OBITUARY. DIED, of Dysentery, on the 10th inst., MRS. JULIER LIPSCOMB, wife of Enward Lipscom, sept., and daughter of William and Characters, leaving a large chole of relations and friends to mourn her loss. Mrs. Lipscomb had just entered hersixly-fourth year. Having connected herself with the Baptist Church in about connected herself with the Baptist Church in about her eighteenth year, she continued a consistent mantier of the church unto the day of her demise. She lived to see her immediate family all reared and educated, and although the loss of a wife and a mother is over to be looked upon as a calamity, yet the goodness of Providence in prolonging her the goodness of Providence in prolonging her the loss of one so nearly allied by all the ties of nature and affection must produce.

NO WONDER HE WAS THANKFUL. READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES. PROCEER, October 19, 1852. MESSRS. FLEMING BROS.

Gentlemen : Having experienced the bene ficial eficets of Dr. M'Lane's Colebrated Liver Pills, prepared by you, I take great pleasure in recommending them to the public. I feel warranted in saying, that they are a certain cure for liver complaints and all hillous diseases, no matter how difficult or long standing. I myself was afflicted with this dreadful disease for over two years, and oh! how thankful I am that I heard of these Pills. I purchased of one of your areats three boxes, and before Phad finished the third box, was completely cured. I verily believe, but for Dr. M' Lane's Liver. Pitle, I should have now been in my grave; but as rit is, I am now enjoying the best of health, and stand a living witness of the efficiency of Dr. M' LANE'S LIVER PILLS, Besides recovering my health, I consider that I have saxed in pocket some two or three hundred dollars playsicians' fees-

This testimony I give you with the greatest pleas. ure, and hope it may do something towards mak hig these invaluable Pills known to nit who are suffering with liver complaint.

PROSPECTUS. THE EXAMINER.

THE publication of this journal, from circumstances beyond the control of the proprietor, has been suspended for some months. I aving recently received much encouragement from good cently received much encouragement from good and true men, it is proposed to resume its publication without delay as A LITERARY AND POLITICAL JOURNAL, and, we are encouraged to believe, on such basis as will preclude the probability of a failure.

As a Literary Journal it will be devoted to the development of Southern Talent. There is no paper in this State, and very few in the Southern States, that make Literature a distinct and prominent feature. The aim of the conductor of THE EXAMINER will be to clevate it to a high standard in this department, which will be under the control of one of the ablest and most experienced editors in the State, JOHN G. BOWMAN, Esq., a writer well and favorably known throughout the South.

As a Political Journal in will at once take ground and abide by the old landmarks of THE CAL-HOUN STATE RIGHTS PARTY, owing no allegiance to any national party, nor seeking to advance to any national party, nor seeking to advance to interest by anias and the state of the state of the state of the party, nor seeking to advance to interest by anias and party, nor seeking to advance to interest by anias and party, nor seeking to advance to the state of the allegiance to any national party, nor seeking to advance its interests by subserviency to any local clique whatever. It will be entirely independent in its expression of opinion on public men and messares-in short, it is our desire to make it a faithful repre-sentative of the people and a fearless advocate of the interests of the State. The position of the South the interests of the State. The position of the South at this juncture, the apparent trackling of the ap-pointees and organs of the present Administration to the Freesoil or Black R-publican party, as exhibited in the course of the Governor of Kansas, demand that the press of the South should shake off the shackles of party, and unbesitatingly define its position and avow its determination to maintain and defend the rights of the Southern States. It is now too late to deplore the formation of sectional parties -- the South, as a section, must fight her own battles, or be over-This department of THE EXAMINER will be under the direction and management of W. B. JOHNSTON, Esq., who has long been connected with the journalism of South Carolina, and who is well known as an experienced editor.

We deem it due, to all who may be disposed to sustain it, to state in advance, that in politics THE EXAMINER will essentially be A STATE RIGHTS JOURNAL.

The paper will be conducted in the same handsome style and form as before—a large quarto, containing eight pages and forty columns of matter—Weekly, at the reduced price of Two Dollars nor. Weekly, at the reduced price of Two Dollars per
